DYNAMIC STEWARD MAGAZINE—3RD QTR 2024

The Art of Systematic Giving

The year 2024 is a time of celebration for Seventh-day Adventists, marking the 150th anniversary of sending missionaries from everywhere to everywhere. We rejoice and reflect on how to move forward and faster. This issue of Dynamic Steward explores how Systematic Benevolence can decisively impact the expansion of mission. As we work to finish what started in 1874, we're called to give like our early pioneers. Read the digital flipbook on issuu.com or in PDF below.

ELLEN G. WHITE'S COUNSEL AND PRACTICE ON TITHE

Seventh-day Adventists follow the Biblical injunction to return one-tenth of their income, the tithe, to the Lord. Recently tithe questions have arisen concerning Ellen Whites statements and actions with regard to the tithe. Some, charging the Church with apostasy, have even claimed Ellen White's support for diverting tithe from established channels. This paper . . . attempts to set out fairly and accurately Ellen White's position.

PASTORAL LEADERSHIP AND GIVING

Pastor Chad Stuart

DS: Leaders are men and women of influence. How would you apply this assertion to pastoral leadership in the local church?

Pastoral leadership itself is influence. I can't control volunteers by threatening their pay because they don't get paid. Nor can I kick a member out of the church for not volunteering. So, all I have is the ability to influence people to get them to respond and act.

STEWARDSHIP POWERPOINT

Illustrates Grace
I remember being in a city where I noticed that the people resorted to a favorite well in one of the parks. I said to a man one day: "Does the well never run dry?"
The man was drinking of the water out of the well; and as he stopped drinking . . .

Illustrates Love
Bob Russell, a preacher in Kentucky, says that when he was 11-12 he wanted to build his brother, John, a toy wheelbarrow for Christmas. He got some old broom handles, a wheel off a wagon and some old wood. Bob said he put together the most awful . . .

E. G. WHITE'S QUOTATIONS

It was shown that the recording angel makes a faithful record of every offering dedicated to God, and put into the treasury, and also of the final result of the means thus bestowed. The eye of God takes cognizance of every farthing devoted to His cause, and of the willingness or reluctance of the giver. The motive in giving is also chronicled.—E. G. White, Counsels on Stewardship, p. 196
